and collaborate more efficiently

Propheo rapidly retrieves the right candidate for recruitment agencies

Propheo is a suite of collaborative applications fully hosted on the Web. The Propheo solution simplifies collaboration and document tracking. It is particularly well suited for the needs of a business that relies on the work of a team (freelancers and employees).

Here's how Propheo can help your recruitment agency:

It's easy to organize 20,000 CVs

Propheo provides automated classification tools to easily organize resumes. Whatever the number of resumes you manage, Propheo makes your task easier.

It is essential to find the right candidate fast

Propheo provides you with a powerful search engine that helps you find the right information instantly.

Follow-up and history archiving

Propheo ensures record keeping of every action made and keeps a copy of modifications. You will be able to see all the actions taken by people who worked on a specific folder.

Automatic management

Propheo allows you to schedule and automate tasks and alerts. These tasks can be assigned to individuals. For example you can automatically request the candidates to update their online resume when it becomes obsolete.

That way your CV database will be easier to maintain.

Keep an overview of your data

Propheo makes your data accessible anywhere and anytime it. You will always be able to access So you always have one eye on the status or state of a candidate or an application. Propheo rend accessible vos données de n'importe où et ceci n'importe quand. Ainsi vous avez toujours un œil sur le statut ou l'état actuel d'un candidat ou d'une demande.

Propheo keeps your data secure

Propheo sécurise vos données car elles sont sauvegardées quotidiennement et elles sont protégées par des droits d'accès que vous définissez.

Your online virtual desktop

Propheo vous fournit une interface utilisateur nouvellement pensée vous permettant de travailler sur le web comme si l'application se trouvait sur votre poste de bureau.
